

Where can I go in Montgomery County to see fireworks?

Public fireworks displays, conducted by trained professionals, are the smartest and safest way to view fireworks because they are established under controlled settings and safety regulations and monitored by public safety organizations.

The County hosts two Independence Day fireworks displays on July 4

- Germantown Glory, Germantown Soccerplex, 18041 Central Park Circle, Boyds, Maryland. Celebration kicks off at 7:00 p.m. and features a concert by the “Simply the Best” featuring Suzette Dorsey. Fireworks begin at approximately at 9:15 p.m.
- Mid-County Sparkles, Albert Einstein High School, 11135 Newport Road, Kensington, Maryland. Entertainment begins at 7:30 p.m. with a concert by Gringo Jingo performing the best of Santana. Since there will only be handicapped parking – no other on-site parking will be available at the school or at adjacent properties – two shuttle bus stops are available, beginning at 6:15 p.m., at Westfield Wheaton Metro Parking Garage adjacent to the JC Penney Department Store and the north building parking lot adjacent to Macy’s Department Store. Fireworks begin at approximately at 9:15 p.m.

Other July 4 fireworks displays I Montgomery County include:

- City of Gaithersburg, Montgomery County Fairgrounds, 16 Chestnut Street, Gaithersburg, Maryland. Gates open at 5 p.m. Walk-in at Chestnut or Dalamar Streets; the Perry Parkway entrance will be closed. Entertainment begins at 6 p.m. Fireworks launch at dusk. Link to information:
